

Steer Point Quarry Restoration – 7th May 2020

In case you get any comments from the local community, the quarry took in 6 loads last week, they are essentially still locked down and not open but were asked at short notice if they could take the loads and as the material met the site acceptance criteria they decided to accept them