

November report

- The total number of HGV deliveries for the period week commencing 23 November to 6 December was 87 into the site which represented 62% of the permitted number over that period so maintaining the same rate since our last reporting
- The weekly average was 44 loads with the maximum number of permitted loads in any one week of 70 into the site achieved during two weeks
- 1,464 tonnes of material was brought into the site during that period
- There were no public complaints logged by Aardvark during the period
- There were no incidents reported to Aardvark in the period